

WHY WORK IN BOATING?

There are many industries you could look to for a career. Why pick boating? Job opportunity is vast, and whether your interest is business, sales, design, working with your hands, marketing, inventing, there's a job for your. Here's a list of reasons why we think it's a fun industry to be in.

+ You get to work outside in nature.

+ You're frequently meeting new people.

+ Work events are often "on the water."

+ It's easy to take vacations around the holidays.

+ "Depending on where you live, it can be easy to take time off in the winter."

+ You can be the first to see or test new products.

+ You get to introduce people to how fun boating is.

+ You are helping to create lasting memories.

+ Test driving new boats on the water is a lot of fun.

+ There's opportunity to travel to different places.

+ If you are a tech, your number works around the world

+ Advocating for what you love and enjoy doing!

+ You could be a captain of a boat and travel around the world.

+ It feels good doing work you are passionate about.

+ It's creative — creating and designing new products ... engines, boats.

+ You get to work with your hands.

+ YOU'RE NEVER BORED.

+ Boating is fun — we sell fun for a living.

+ There's a career for everything — technicians, marketing, business, engineering, inventing